APRIL 2024 – WORSHIP IN-PERSON & ONLINE

Beloved Church,

In John 11, Jesus got a notice that Lazarus, the brother of Mary and Martha, was dead. So, he went to their house. On his arrival, Jesus found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb for four days. “Lord,” Martha said to Jesus, “if you had been here, my brother would not have died. But I know that even now God will give you whatever you ask.” Jesus said to her, “Your brother will rise again.” Martha answered, “I know he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day.” Jesus said to her, “I am the resurrection and the life. The one who believes in me will live, even though they die; and whoever lives by believing in me will never die. Do you believe this?” (John 11:25-26) I am just awe-struck by this conversation between Jesus and Martha. Martha had zero understanding of what Jesus meant. She meant her brother’s resurrection in the future, but Jesus meant ‘raising Lazarus now’. I can picture Martha being astounded that Jesus resurrected her brother right there. He was no longer in the tomb. Does this surprise you?

“Do you believe this?”—this question of Jesus captivates me. Ask yourself, “Do I believe NOW that Jesus is the resurrection and the life? Do I believe NOW that I will live eternally even after I die?” I wonder what we would do differently if we really believed this. Philips Brooks writes, “Let every man and woman count himself immortal. Let him catch the revelation of Jesus in his resurrection. Let him say not merely, ‘Christ is risen,’ but, ‘I shall rise.’ In this belief, we can turn our life around NOW. In this belief, we can find new life NOW when everything feels lifeless. In this belief, we see light shining in what feels like a dark tomb NOW. Because Christ lives in us and with us through the Holy Spirit, we are compelled to live the future in the present. In this belief we make a difference NOW.

The CEO of the Leading Edge symposium once said something that still rings in my ears: “Every morning I wake up asking, ‘God, how can I help great people to do great things?’” This particular man thinks pastors are great people who can do great things and he seriously invests in them, their calling, and their care. Mountain Vista United Methodist Church, I pray I can help you great people do great things.

The Easter Season is a time of celebrating all the ways in which resurrection is possible in our lives. Jesus did not die on the cross just so we could live comfortable, well-adjusted lives. His purpose is far deeper: He wants to create Heaven on Earth. Mountain Vista United Methodist Church, we shall rise to make a difference in this world as Easter people!

Where In The world are Dan & Barb?

Dan and Barb are still currently in Mississippi. We have been enjoying some time with our son John and his family. Making new friends here at the family camp. There are a lot of retired military couples that come down here for the winter. Walks on the beach are wonderful, with beautiful sunsets. All of the magnolia trees and the azalea bushes are blooming and it is absolutely beautiful, all the bright colors. The weather has been beautiful. We did have a few cold days and some rain.

Dan took a job here at the base family camp as the camp host. He will do that till June 11.

The first part of March we were very busy looking and trading in our 5th wheel for a different floor plan, that better fits us living it full time. Barb has been sewing, making quilts for the Wednesdays quilting ladies to finish up. We sure do miss everyone and think about all of you every day.

Love Dan and Barb Hurley
